GUIDE TO RESTAURANTS

This "Guide to Restaurants" has been prepared for use of visitors to the High Energy Physics facilities at BNL as well as the BNL staff. The restaurants included are the results of questionnaires distributed to employees in the Accelerator and Physics Departments. Restaurants are not rated and this listing does not constitute an endorsement of them. It is provided solely as a guide. Prices quoted refer to a la carte dinner entrees and are current as of July, 1981. Hours and prices may be subject to change and, where necessary, further verification is advised. Many of these restaurants remain open to a later hour on Friday and Saturday.
